PARTY FROM ITALY IS DUE TOMORROW

Several on Way to Sessions of Conference Include
Army and Navy Men.

Several of Italy's representatives at the forthcoming armament conference are due in New York tomorrow, when the steamer Dante Alighieri is scheduled to dock. They will be transported to Washington on a special train, the hours of departure and arrival of which are not yet fixed, but which probably will not reach the city until late in the evening.

Lieut. Gen. Giuseppe Vaccari, chief of staff of the Italian army, and Vice Admiral Baron Alfredo Accon, former chief of staff of the Italian navy, are the most important personages expected in this party. Lieut. Col. Natale Pentimalli and Lieut. Col. Barbesenti, army staff officers, and Commander Prince Fabrizio Ruspoli and Lieut. Baron Franco Rogadeo di Torreguadra, naval staff officers, will accompany their respective chiefs. Col. Riccardo Moiso, representing military aviation, is also on the ship. Gen. Vaccari is the bearer of the golden medal which Italy is sending to the American unknown dead. The Italian embassy and the Italian delegation will join in placing a wreath on the casket of the unknown soldier tomorrow. Signor Francesco Quattrone, commissioner general of Italy in the United States and honorary minister plenipotentiary, is also on the Dante Alighieri, as are the following attaches: Signor Alessandro Bagall, Consul General; Signor Sig. Alfredo Antonini and Signor Franco Bruno-Averardi. One woman, Signora Olivia Agresti, assistant secretary, is also to arrive on the ship. The date of the arrival of Signar Meda, the only member of the delegation proper not yet in Washington, and of Signor Ferdinando Busnatti, his private secretary, is still unknown, as is that of Signor De Domenico Gidoni, accountant general of the Bank of Italy, who is a delegate of the ministry of the treasury.

Signor Vito Cacciatelli, chief of section of the ministry of colonies, is due in about a fortnight.

Representatives Now Here.
Among representatives already here, in addition to those who arrived in a party last week, are Lieut. Col. Alessandro Guidoni, attached to the embassy here as representative of naval aviation; Signor G. E. Cecato, commercial attaché of the embassy, and Signor Mario Bonomo and Signor Michele Matteo, assistant secretaries.

HOUSE IS INVITED.
Members of the House were invited today by Secretary Hughes to attend the opening session Saturday of the armament conference. A section has been reserved for the representatives.

J. W. GARRETT SUGGESTED FOR ARMS PARLEY POST
In official circles it is believed probable that the secretary general of the arms limitation conference will be John W. Garrett of Maryland, now on special service in the State Department. It is understood that he has been arranging affairs which would come under the purview of the secretary general. He will be the choice of the American delegation for the office, although the actual selection will be made by the conference. Mr. Garrett has been in the diplomatic service for twenty years, beginning as secretary of the American delegation at The Hague. He has served as secretary and charge d'affaires of American embassies at Rome and Berlin and has been minister to Venezuela, as well as serving on special missions to other Latin American countries.

PEGGY HOPKINS LIKELY TO BECOME DIVORCEE

CHICAGO, November 5.—Judge Joseph Sabath yesterday indicated that he would grant a divorce to James Stanley Joyce, millionaire Chicago lumberman, from Peggy Hopkins Joyce, former New York chorus girl. The hearing of Joyce's petition was concluded after it had been announced that a settlement between Mr. Joyce and Mrs. Joyce had been reached whereby she would receive cash and jewelry totaling $300,000, but would return to Joyce property valued at more than half a million dollars. Judge Sabath said he probably would formally grant the decree today or tomorrow.

BANDITS GET $15,000.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., November 5.—Three robbers entered the Republic State Bank here yesterday, drove off officials and patrons into the vault, and escaped with $15,000 in cash. They fled in an automobile kept in readiness by a fourth bandit.

"An up-boys-and-at-'em"
Sale of quality

OVERCOATS

$32.50

THIS is a sale for the man who knows a good thing when he sees it—for the man who strikes while the iron is hot.

Such a man will come here tomorrow, run his eye over the styles, get a good grip on the woollens, slip into a coat he likes, note the way it fits at neck and shoulders, and decide right then and there that here is the best overcoat possible to buy at $32.50.

We expect this man to do just this—it's the way we bought these coats and we know no better way to determine values.

This is a sale of high quality, but low quantity—there are just 212 coats in all.

At a somewhat similar sale some weeks ago we had more than four times as many overcoats, and sizes and style assortments were broken before mid-afternoon.

So it wouldn't surprise us to have more customers than we have coats, for they are just the styles men want, and the values stand out like a signal flag.

All big warm overcoats in ulsters and ulsterettes

Coats with kimono or raglan sleeves; full-belted coats with warm, roomy pockets and deep convertible collars.

Built of deep-bodied overcoatings; thick as a sheep's fleece, with plaid and contrasting backs, in the tweeds and herringbones and also numerous novelty fabrics.

All regular sizes 34 to 42.

We've made a "Hit" with these special Dinner suits at $40

—partly because men were quick to recognize the value, but more because men know this to be the biggest social season Washington has known in years, and they are going to be ready. Suits are tailored with the distinction demanded by the class they travel in
